

Template Week 7 – Host your website on GitHub

Student number: 587707

Domain name (URL) of your website on GitHub:

<https://angela-git-sudo.github.io/587707ITfundamentals.github.io/>

The screenshot shows the GitHub repository page for 'Angela-Git-sudo / 587707ITfundamentals.github.io'. The left sidebar contains navigation links: General, Access, Collaborators, Moderation options, Code and automation, Branches, Tags, Rules, Actions, Models, and Webhooks. The main content area is titled 'GitHub Pages' and includes a description: 'GitHub Pages is designed to host your personal, organization, or project pages from a GitHub repository.' Below this, a status box states: 'Your site is live at <https://angela-git-sudo.github.io/587707ITfundamentals.github.io/> Last deployed by Angela-Git-sudo 9 minutes ago'. It features two buttons: 'Visit site' and 'Unpublish site'. The 'Build and deployment' section shows a 'Source' dropdown set to 'Deploy from a branch' with a 'Preview' button next to it. A sticky note is overlaid on the right side of the screenshot, containing the text: 'Angela Visser', '587707', '05-01-20269', and a list of icons: 'B', 'I', 'U', 'S', and a list icon.
